Period for Reply

A SHORTENED STATUTORY PERIOD FOR REPLY IS SET TO EXPIRE 3 MONTH(S) OR THIRTY (30) DAYS, WHICHEVER IS LONGER, FROM THE MAILING DATE OF THIS COMMUNICATION.

- Extensions of time may be available under the provisions of 37 CFR 1.136(a). In no event, however, may a reply be timely filed after SIX (6) MONTHS from the mailing date of this communication.
- If NO period for reply is specified above, the maximum statutory period will apply and will expire SIX (6) MONTHS from the mailing date of this communication.
- Failure to reply within the set or extended period for reply will, by statute, cause the application to become ABANDONED (35 U.S.C. § 133). Any reply received by the Office later than three months after the mailing date of this communication, even if timely filed, may reduce any earned patent term adjustment. See 37 CFR 1.704(b).

DETAILED ACTION

Election/Restrictions

Claims 9 and 18-41 are withdrawn from further consideration pursuant to 37 CFR 1.142(b) as being drawn to a nonelected group and species (Group I Species A Subspecies I), there being no allowable generic or linking claim. Election was made without traverse in the reply filed on 11/16/2006. Claim 9 was withdrawn from the election grouping because it contains subject matter drawn to figure 5, which is not part of the selected species.

Currently, claims 1-8 and 10-17 are pending for examination in this application.

Information Disclosure Statement

The information disclosure statements (IDS) that were submitted on 11/24/2003, 2/11/2005, 2/22/2005 are in compliance with the provisions of 37 CFR 1.97. Accordingly, the examiner is considering the information disclosure statements.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(e) the invention was described in (1) an application for patent, published under section 122(b), by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent or (2) a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent, except that an international application filed under the treaty defined in section 351(a) shall have the effects for purposes of this subsection of an application filed in the United States only if the international application designated the United States and was published under Article 21(2) of such treaty in the English language.

(e) the invention was described in a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention thereof by the applicant for patent, or on an international application by another who has fulfilled the requirements of paragraphs (1), (2), and (4) of section 371(c) of this title before the invention thereof by the applicant for patent.

The changes made to 35 U.S.C. 102(e) by the American Inventors Protection Act of 1999 (AIPA) and the Intellectual Property and High Technology Technical Amendments Act of 2002 do not apply when the reference is a U.S. patent resulting directly or indirectly from an international application filed before November 29, 2000. Therefore, the prior art date of the reference is determined under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) prior to the amendment by the AIPA (pre-AIPA 35 U.S.C. 102(e)).

Claims 1-8 and 10-17 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) as being anticipated by Chee et al. (2002/0183738). Chee et al. discloses a method and apparatus for treatment of atrial fibrillation.

Regarding claims 1-8 and 10-17, Chee et al. discloses a catheter comprising a catheter body (130) that defines an inner lumen (164) with a probe (134) within the inner lumen that delivers fluid to a tissue site of a patient with several electrodes (132,134,136,138,140) coupled to the catheter (Figures 12A-15). The catheter body (130) is adapted to contact the tissue and the probe is extendable and retractable (Figures 12A-12B) with the distal needle tip having an exit port capable of delivery a macromolecule drug therapy, or cellular material and is formed of an electrically conducting material that is capable of performing a therapeutic electrical action ([0080], [0122], [0095]). Additionally, the electrode array (132,134,136,138,140) coupled to the catheter body is capable of being used to sense contact with the tissue or apply/take electrical measurements from/to the tissue ([0080]).
